

Forget-me-not memorial seeds

St Wilfrid's Hospice offers personalised packets of forget-me-not seeds to remember your loved ones. Buy them for memorial services, wedding favours, as a one-off gift for friends or family or for yourself to remember a loved one and plant at home.

Each envelope contains forget-me-not seeds that can be planted, nurtured and enjoyed while you remember the person who has died.

Many people find comfort from having a place to go and watch a tree or flower grow during the year.
